"Legacy: Justice in an Unjust World"

Malachi: What kind of legacy are we living?
This week: God's justice is coming.

Malachi 2:17-3:5 God reminds leadership that he will judge injustice.

1. We may not always understand.

2. Obedience doesn't require understanding.

3. We demand justice for others, but desire grace for ourselves.

→ God's justice does not depend on our opinions.

SINKING IN: Questions to process with your family, friends, & self-reflection.

1. In what area of your life are you experiencing "refinement?"
2. How can we overcome areas of hypocrisy in our own faith?
3. How do we offer shelter to the world from God's judgment?
4. How is God the only one who is morally capable of judging?
5. Why do we think God has to play by our rules for justice & grace?
